Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Friends of Saint Dominic's Annual Networking Event. We continue to be amazed by the unconditional support of our most generous corporate sponsors and individual donors.

First and foremost, thank you to our event committee members and board members for their leadership and commitment. Special thanks to Eugene P. White, David T. Meberg and John O'Hare for their stewardship again this year.

Secondly, thank you to our honorees – Andrea Megnin, Paul Capurso and Andy Sgro. We were delighted when you all accepted to be honored as we returned to our tradition of awarding three (3) very special awards to individuals who exemplify the personal and professional traits identified in the Eileen Marie White Community Service Award, Francis J.P. McHale Memorial Award and Victory Award.

Thank you to His Eminence Timothy Cardinal Dolan for joining us this year. And thank you to special guests Steve Delisi, Mike Melanophy, Kevin McCarthy and the NYPD Emerald Pipe and Drum Band. Your talents add so much to our event's ambience and excitement.

If you have not done so already, please Follow and Like us on Facebook, Instagram and/or LinkedIn. We have many exciting events planned for the upcoming months including our annual golf outing on July 29th, shooting clays competition, and toy drive luncheon to name a few.

Sincerely,

Brian Finneran

With 30 years of experience in the union, Paul is at the pinnacle of his career. He has honed his skills as a rank-and-file member while building some of the most iconic buildings in the tri-state area. As president, Paul is responsible for assisting with the overall operations for the 20,000-member organization, which is comprised of nine local unions covering a wide range of trade specialties.

Born in Staten Island, Paul joined the District Council in 1987 at the age of 17. Throughout his career, Paul worked his way from journeymen to lead carpenter, foreman, and general foreman, and on to being a super for an interior systems contractor. In 1996, looking to become more involved, Paul became a part-time instructor teaching the next generation of apprentices and journeymen at the NYCDCC Training Center, while continuing to work in the field as a foreman.

Having committed himself to a path of lifelong learning, Paul sought out opportunities to excel and grow into leadership positions with greater accountability. In 2000, Paul became a Delegate for Local 157, a Financial Secretary in 2006, and a Business Representative in 2008. He was promoted to Lead Regional Manager of NYCDCC Manhattan and Queens Rep Centers in 2011. At the same time, Paul also became a Trustee to the Benefit Funds. In 2020, was elected to his current position.

Paul brings a wealth of tried-and-true experience from every level of his union membership. As president, Paul strives to utilize his vast experience to mentor younger members and help the Council succeed. He is committed to raising the standards for the working class and advocating for union values throughout New York City and beyond.

The background of the advertisement is a photograph of the Wall Street Bull statue in New York City. The statue is a large, dark bronze bull, standing on a cobblestone street. The scene is captured during the "golden hour" of sunset, with warm, orange light illuminating the scene. In the background, there are trees without leaves and a city street with cars and a pedestrian. The overall mood is one of strength and resilience.
