Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Friends of Saint Dominic's Annual Networking Event. We continue to be amazed by the unconditional support of our most generous corporate sponsors and individual donors.

First and foremost, thank you to our event committee members and board members for their leadership and commitment. Special thanks to Andrew Sgro, Eugene P. White, David T. Meberg and John O'Hare for their stewardship again this year.

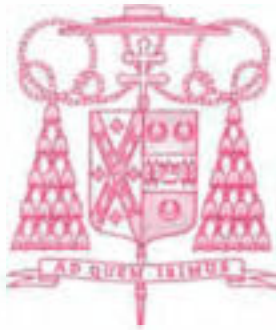

Secondly, thank you to our honorees – Arsha Cazazian-Clement, Anthony landoli and Eddie McWilliams. We were delighted when you all accepted to be honored as we returned to our tradition of awarding three (3) very special awards to individuals who exemplify the personal and professional traits identified in the Eileen Marie White Community Service Award, Victory Award, and the Francis J.P. McHale Memorial Award.

Thank you to His Eminence Timothy Cardinal Dolan for joining us again this year. And thank you to special guests Steve Delisi, Mike Melanophy, Kevin McCarthy and the NYPD Emerald Pipe and Drum Band. Your talents add so much to our event's ambience and excitement.

If you have not done so already, please Follow and Like us on Facebook, Instagram and/or LinkedIn. We have many exciting events planned for the upcoming months including our annual golf outing on July 28th and sporting clays tournament on October 16th.

Sincerely,

Brian M. Finneran

EDDIE MCWILLIAMS
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
CEMENT & CONCRETE WORKERS DC LECET

Eddie McWilliams plays a key role in advancing the organization's mission to address the issues impacting both the contracting employers and the union tradespeople that make up the workforce of NYC's Concrete Industry, while also supporting the broader New York construction industry. A proud native of the Bronx, Eddie began his career in 1985 as an apprentice carpenter. Balancing work on high-profile construction projects with evening classes to further his education, Eddie quickly gained valuable hands-on experience. Over the years, he contributed to numerous prominent projects, including residential buildings, hospitals, and office complexes.

As his career progressed, Eddie became an organizer with the NYC District Council of Carpenters, eventually rising to the role of Organizing Director. He was also a member of the Joint Apprenticeship Training Committee. Eddie's unwavering commitment to both workers and the New York City construction industry led him to his current position, where he continues to build on the strong foundation of the Cement & Concrete Workers District Council. He also works closely with The Cement League, New York's association of leading concrete contractors, to advance the interests of the concrete sector in the city.

Eddie is widely recognized for his ability to build strong, collaborative relationships with a diverse range of stakeholders, including employer associations, general contractors, developers, owners, and government leaders. His focus is always on finding practical, mutually beneficial solutions that support both the workforce and the industry. As a board member of the Concrete Industry Board of NYC, Eddie continues to play an influential role in shaping the future of the concrete industry in the region.

While the New York construction industry has undergone significant transformations over the years, one constant remains: unionized employers are critical to the city's prosperity and to maintaining a skilled, productive workforce that ensures a strong, sustainable future. Eddie is deeply committed to ensuring that unionized labor continues to drive the growth and stability of the industry.

Eddie and his wife, Lucy, have been happily married for 33 years and are proud parents to James, Kristen, and Son-in-Law Alex.

Eddie is honored to support the Friends of Saint Dominic's at their upcoming charitable event, reflecting his long-standing dedication to community service and his belief in the importance of the work they do bringing hope and mercy to people in need.

2025 Victory Award

Honors an outstanding leader whose unflinching efforts and dedication have been a source of inspiration and encouragement to all people, and whose commitment to the dignity of the family, and people of all races and creeds whose lives have been overshadowed and limited by misfortune has stood as model of accomplishments, love and charity.
